

This makes absolutely no sense. Association members receive education and information through fax and by virtue of their voluntary membership in the association expect to receive this information without having to sign up for it or continue to receive it. The paper work and "systems" cost this regulation as proposed would necessitate will put many small associations out of business.